LEXINGTON PRESBYTERY

The regular spring meeting of Lexington Presbytery, and a most successful meeting, came to a close at Harrisonburg last Friday night.

Following are some notes taken from the closing sessions:

A request from Rev. W. S. Trimble, pastor of the Monterey, Crabbottom and Pisgah churches, that his pastoral relations be dissolved was received and docketed, and then came the trial sermon of Mr. L. M. Moffett, the candidate for ordination.

Mr. Moffett preached a sermon that was highly complimented, and when he had concluded it, the committee on examination, reported that his examination had been satisfactory, and a motion to sustain his rmon and the report of the committee was unanimously adopted. The night session was the time set for his ordination.

At the night's session the sermon of the Rev. Dr. A. M. Fraser on "How May the Principles of Calvinism be rendered more effective under modern conditions" was listened to by a large and appreciative congregation. Dr. Fraser is one of the most profound men in the Presbytery, and his sermon last night, which was the ordination sermon, was quite a treat.

Following Dr. Fraser's sermon the ordination of Mr. M. L. Moffett occurred, Rev. J. N. Vandevanter being in charge of the ordination service. The charge was delivered by Rev. E. B. Druen, of Basic City.

Report of the statistical board, made by the chairman, stated Clerk Wm. C. White, showed the Presbytery to be in excellent shape on the whole, though there were several conditions pointed out that were not satisfactory. A few points of the report that might be mentioned are as follows: during the past year 20 ministers have left the Presbytery, while only ten have come to it; there are twenty-nine churches which have no pastors; there are 12,209 communicants in the Presbytery which is by more than 1,000 larger than ever before; Sunday school membership has also increased largely during the past year, in contributions to ministers' salaries, home and foreign missions, education, etc., the Presbytery annually expends the sum of approximately $100,000. The report was adopted.

CONSIDERATION OF MERIT.

Rev. L. S. Shires, Resident principal of the Alleghany Collegiate Institute, Alderson, W. Va., received a letter last week from Dr. Denny, president of Washington & Lee University, Lexington, Va., offering a scholarship at the University to boys of the Alleghany Collegiate Institute to be granted to those attaining a certain standing. Other institutions have recognized the high standing of the Alleghany Collegiate Institute by offering scholarships to the students when they are ready to go elsewhere to school.

WAYS OF THE ARABS.

Dodging the Evil Eye and Tests of Filial Piety.

Very curious to the occidental mind are some of the ways of Arabia and other Mohammedan countries. A traveler says: "One of the objects of the most anxious solicitude for Mohammedan parents is the shielding of their children from the evil eye. Any person expressing admiration for a child except by pious ejaculation or the invocation of blessings upon the prophet fills the heart of the parent with apprehension. When children are to be taken into the street their faces are often even smeared with mud or greasy substances lest their comeliness should attract attention, and in order that the person of the child itself should escape attention gaudy and glittering ornaments are hung about it and written charms sewed into leather medallions suspended from its neck.

"One of the best of Arab characteristics is that of filial piety. Sons and daughters of deceased parents take upon themselves all sorts of irksome tasks accounted as expiatory of the minor faults committed by the departed ones during their lifetime and discharging faithfully every payment or obligation left unfulfilled by dead parents, for has not the prophet said that martyrdom even will not atone for an unpaid debt?

"Eloquence is accounted the greatest of all possible gifts. According to Arab tradition, the most superlative degree of eloquence was attained by King David such being the beauty of his diction, added to the poetry of his words, that when he declaimed the Psalms even birds and wild beasts were spellbound, while on some occasions as many as 400 men died from the excess of delight induced by his reading."—Chicago News.

A Hard Shot.

Husband (angrily)—What! More money? When I'm dead you'll probably have to beg for all the money you get! Wife (calmly)—Well, I'll be better off than some poor woman who never had any practice.

If you want to feel well, look well and be well, take Foley's Kidney Remedy. It tones up the kidneys and bladder, purifies the blood and restores health and strength. Pleasant to take and contains no harmful drugs. Swadley Bros., Vanderpool Va., and All Druggists Monterey, Va.

OBITUARIES

William Harper, who was shot by the accidental discharge of a shotgun at the Darrin fire two weeks ago, died at his home nine miles southeast of Parker last Saturday afternoon. Lockjaw, caused by the wound, was the immediate cause of his death. The funeral was held from his late home Monday morning. Rev. Kephart, of the Parker M. E. Church, preached the funeral sermon. Burial followed in Highland Cemetery here.

Wm. M. Harper was born in 1863 at Crabbottom, Va. In 1886 he was united in marriage to Sarah E. Tingley. Three children were born to this union: Mrs. Warner, of West Virginia, Mrs. Potter, of Staunton, Va., and Mrs. W. O. Bland, of Cadmus, Kan. In 1895 he was again united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Chew, and three children were born to bless this union, Elsie, aged 13, Willie, aged 8, Carnia, aged 4. In 1902 he moved with his family from his old home in Western Virginia to the Valley of Virginia, where they resided until March, 1908, when they moved to their present home on the farm near Parker.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his beloved wife, six children, four sisters and one brother. The deepest sympathy of many friends is extended to the bereaved ones.—Parker (Kan.) Messenger.

ELIZABETH GUM

Mrs. Elizabeth Gum died at the home of her youngest daughter, Mrs. Kenny Simmons on Dry Branch, April 20, 1909. Elizabeth J. Curry was born December 23d, 1837, and was married to Thomas Gum in 1869. To this union was born 8 children, 4 boys and 4 girls, 3 dead and five living: Harman, Albert, Willis and Lillie, being present at the bedside of their mother. The two latter giving her their undivided attention. Standing over her day and night until no more could be done to alleviate her suffering, she telling them at the last they could do no more for her. Calling a friend to her she whispered, "I am almost gone," and when she was asked if she was ready to die, she expressed herself as being ready to go at any time. It was one of the most touching death-bed scenes ever witnessed by the writer. The three boys kneeling by her side entreating her to speak again to them before she died. She knew every thing until the last moment. She leaves behind her one sister, who is now very ill. Mrs. Mary F. Terry, and one brother, John W. Curry.

Deceased was a kind old christian lady and leaves behind her a clear record. Everything was done that loving hands could do, but death, the grim monster, after months of patient suffering, claimed its victim. Her children were all present at her death but Mrs. Belle Griffin and Otho, the second son. She was laid to rest on the hill behind the Hamilton Chapel, beside her two daughters. Services were conducted by Rev. Pery Paxton. D.

MRS. IDA LOENARD

Ida Jane Goddin was born in McDowell, Va., July 15, 1872, and died at her home near Edison, Nebraska, April 21, 1909, being 36 years, 9 months and 6 days of age. Bereft of both parents in infancy she spent her early life in Virginia, at the home of her grandfather, a minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church South. About 14 years ago she came to Nebraska, teaching in the public schools and making her home with Mr. and Mr. Hanson.

January 5, 1897, she was united in marriage with Howard Leonard, who with her two children, Dean and Carl, survive her. She was a woman of intelligence, refinement and piety. Early in life she united with the Methodist church South, retaining her membership therein until the erection of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Edison when she transferred her membership to it. Her christian life found its greatest activity in her home, where she taught her boys gospel of the blessed Christ, and laid in their young lives the foundation of christian character.

A loving wife and mother has gone to her reward; and the bereaved family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends who with them mourn her loss.

The funeral was held at the Methodist Episcopal church in Edison, Friday at 10 a. m., Rev. Chas. S. Hawley her pastor preached from Isaiah 38:1, and was assisted in the services by Rev. B. F. Eberhart, of Arapahoe, a former pastor. Interment was in the Edison cemetery. —[A clipping furnished by a Nebraska friend.—Ed.]

Apartment House Life.

I know you say you can't help living in a flat, but you could help it if you weren't too lazy to live in the suburbs. There is no real home life possible without children—not one, but two or three—enough to keep the young mother too busy to make believe she belongs to the smart set. And apartments are either too small for that or the landlords won't tolerate children at all. And then there is no neighborhood life. It's a good thing to have gossiping neighbors. You're more apt to be careful of the way you live.

I always think of apartment house life as a sort of joke on socialism—a lot of strangers under one roof with just two mutual interests, a dumb waiter shaft and an artificial palm. And I'm bound to say that I think it is responsible for a heathen race with no children. Children mean sacrifice, and it's sacrifice that make good men and women.—Amelia E. Barr in New York World.

A Scoop.

John L. Toole, the famous English comedian and practical joker, and Mr. Justice Hawkins, who was afterward Lord Brampton, were great friends. They were at supper together one evening discussing the events of the day. The judge incidentally mentioned that he intended on the morrow giving the man he had been trying fifteen years because he deserved it.

As Toole was leaving he blandly inquired: "Oh, would you mind my calling at the newspaper offices and telling them about that fifteen years? It will be a tip for them—exclusive information, you know—and will do me no end of good with the press?"

"Good gracious, no, sir!" exclaimed the judge, who took the precaution of accompanying Toole to his hotel and seeing him safely to bed.

Woman's Spur.

"The scent was excellent that frosty morning. She walked across the field, holding her riding skirt free of her patent leather boots and silver spurs." "Spurs!" shouted the editor. "What alls you, man?"

"Spurs?" the puzzled author repeated. "Don't they wear spurs nowadays? I know they used to." "Women never wear spurs unless they ride astride. They wear one spur—only one. What good would a second be, except to tear the clothes?" "See," said the other. "A natural error, wasn't it?"

"Only a natural error for an ignoramus. But the usual writer of sporting stories is an ignoramus. I rarely read a sporting story but I come across some error quite as blatant as this of yours."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Forced Draft Realism.

"How is it that Scribner's novels thrill with such vital, gripping, realistic portrayal of human passions?" asked Danks.

"Well," said Hanks, "when he gets ready to write a novel he orders a general house cleaning, sends for the plumber to fix the gas jets and for the tinner to fix the stovepipes, bids his little daughter to stay at home to practice five finger exercises, hires a street piano to play German, Irish and Italian national airs in front of the house and tells his wife that her family is not as good as his own. Then he sits and takes notes of what happens."—Brooklyn Life.

Adam's Apple.

The projection in the front of the throat in men, denoting the position of the thyroid cartilage, is styled "Adam's apple." It develops rapidly usually when the voice "breaks," being comparatively small in both children and women. The name arose from the tradition that when Adam attempted to swallow the apple in paradise it stuck in his throat, giving rise to the swelling seen in all his adult male descendants.

A Great Man.

"Father," said little Rollo, "what is a great man?" "A great man, my son, is one who manages to gather about him a whole lot of assistants who will take the blame for his mistakes while he gets the credit for their good ideas!"

Not Wholly Personal.

A.—You have used the word "donkey" several times in the last ten minutes. Am I to understand that you mean anything of a personal nature? B.—Certainly not. There are lots of donkeys in the world besides you.

To learn obeying is the fundamental art of governing.—Carlyle.

Often The Kidneys Are

Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for much sickness and suffering, therefore, if kidney trouble is permitted to continue, serious results are most likely to follow. Your other organs may need attention, but your kidneys most, because they do most and should have attention first. Therefore, when you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. A trial will convince you of its great merit.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest because its remarkable health restoring properties have been proven in thousands of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.
